

OPENSTACK FUNDAMENTALS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course provides you a great opportunity to gain knowledge on operating private cloud, Infrastructure as a Service powered by Openstack. This course offers guidance in diagnosing the operational problems. It gives a great opportunity to enhance, empower and enable your career in cloud computing by interacting with Openstack experts who has tremendous experience in deployment openstack private clouds and also experience in managing public clouds. This course objective is to help learn how to operate and excellent jumpstart to your career in cloud space.

This course offers two learning format one Instructor and gives an opportunity to work on real world use cases under the supervision of an instructor.

Secondly you have option of learning openstack essentials from web based self-paced powered by learning management system(LMS). In this format you have access to presentation and audio content where pause, rewind and fast forward depending on your need. You can learn at your own pace and comfort without any travel overheads.

OBJECTIVE:

1. Help speak eloquently and intelligently about OpenStack and its components
2. Provide good understanding on openstack services and the terminology
3. Provide hands on experience to create VMs, networks, volumes, and images
4. Contextual references on how openstack components interrelate,
5. Finally help them gain a high-level understanding of what it is like to operate an OpenStack cluster.

TARGET AUDIENCE:

Product Manager, Sales Engineers, Project Managers, Business Developers

INFRASTRUCTURE:

Fully functional Private cloud powered by Openstack

COURSE FORMAT

DURATION

START DATE

ILT – Instructor led training

16 hours over 2 weekends ***

May 15th

Virtual Web Based self-paced learning

On Demand

Any time any day **

*This course provides access to Openstack infrastructure for you to play around and will be available for a month. For web based self-paced format the course content will be available for you to refer for 3 months and can be renewable upon request at no cost to you.

 The content and infrastructure will be available from Jun 1st  classes are conducted over the weekends (sat and sun) for a duration of 4 hours